GRIDIRON CLUB'S WINTER DINNER

WILSON, TAFT, ROOSEVELT, BRYAN AND RIP VAN WINKLE PORTRAYED

NOTABLES BURLESQUED

Annual Dinner of Newspaper Men at National Capital Last Night

By Associated Press

Washington, Feb. 1—President elect Wilson, President Taft, Theodore Roosevelt, William Jennings Bryan, Rip Van Winkle and a lot of other notables were portrayed to the Gridiron Club and its guests last night at the annual winter dinner, when men of National size sat at the banquet board and saw themselves frolicking about to their own amusement.

The dinner took the form of one graceful tribute to President Taft and another to President-elect Wilson The club began by having an inauguration of its own President—Rudolph Kauffman of the Washington Evening Star. His inaugural procession, which marched into the banquet hall to the blare of a band consisted of a detachment of the New Jersey National Guard; a club of Princeton professors; a contingent of Southern colonels burrahing for the "solid South," "Places for Veterans," etc. including George W. Harvey, Henry Watterson, August Belmont and T F Ryan, and finally a squad of suffragettes shrieking "Votes for women"

When the din had partially subsided, it was announced in behalf of President Kauffmann that he did not think much of the parade, as there were some things missing

"Where," he asked, "was the Champ Clark Houn' Dog Club?'

'Went broke at Baltimore," was the explanation

"Where's the Underwood Protection Plank?"

"Pulled off the train by Bill Bryan and slapped into steel shackles" was the answer, while the Harmon Ohio Buckeyes were being entertained at French Lick Springs at Tom Taggart's expense

Such as it was, the new president was obliged to be content with his inauguration, and received the sacred emblem of office the golden gridiron with the statement that this being an era of economy and reform he would be allowed neither salary nor travel expenses

Hardly had the guests turned again to their terrapin when entrance was demanded and achieved by the Sigma Pi Pi Sigma Fraternity of the Yale Law School, which insisted in initiating two new members to the club. The dinner was suspended for the ceremony The neophytes were "Mr. William of Cincinnati" and "Mr Theodore of Oyster Bay," to be known in the order respectively as "Brother Bill" and "Brother Teddy" A discord in the band was explained by the inability of the neophytes to agree on a marching tune, one demanding the only tune he knew, A Hot Times in the Old Town Tonight' and the other wanting Keller's 'Hymn of Peace'

The Grand Panjandrum explained that S P P S meant Standpat Progressive Society The symbol of the ballotbox with a coffin and scholar's cap below it meant, 'the ballot box is the one peaceful bludgeon in the hands of the people' He who is stricken by it may either crawl into his political coffin and die at once or prolong life a little by going to teach at a university

A nondescript double ended animal, with a moose head at one end and an elephants at the other replaced the time honored goat that both candidates should be able to ride at once When it broke down under their combined weight Theodore defiantly declared that though he 'could not run the darn thing by Godfrey I smashed it, while Wilson backed himself against the world for a good loser In the struggle the wigs and false mustaches becoming displaced revealed the features of the two new candidates for admission to the club John E Monk of the St Paul Dispatch and John P Gavit of the New York Evening Post

Next, President-elect Wilson was discovered conducting his first cabinet council on the lines of a faculty meeting and calling upon a member for his thesis It soon appeared that all the cabinet officers from the Secretary of State to the Attorney General bore the features of William J Bryan There were nine in all around the cabinet board

"Where is my cabinet" queried the President

'He will soon be here replied his secretary.

SOCIALISM IS THE CAUSE

Howe Declared Himself a "Philosophical Anarchist" But Was Howled Down

By Associated Press

New Orleans, Feb 1—James Eads Howe, of St Louis, the self-styled millionaire hobo leader who first organized the Migratory Workers of the World and who called the first National hobo convention, was repudiated as a leader by the hoboes in convention here today. The fight between Howe and President Jefferson Davis over the question of Socialism, angered the hoboes, who broke up the convention of the International Brotherhood Welfare Association as the hoboes convention is known, and threw Howe and his principals out and organized 'a hobo mass meeting'

Howe declared he was not a Socialist but a "philosophial anarchist" and tried to tell the delegates that Jefferson Davis was himself a dyed in the wool Socialist. The hoboes, however, howled Howe down and stood by Davis

"Down with Howe and his postage stamp philanthropy, he has never given us any of his mythical millions," shouted Davis, and the hoboes yelled After appropriating $1 for the purchase of tobacco for the hoboes confined in the parish prison and in the house of detention, the convention adjourned to meet in the open air on the river front Sunday afternoon

NELSON ALMOST JAILED FOR CONTEMPT

By Associated Press.

Kansas City, Feb. 1—Only persistent efforts of counsel saved William R. Nelson, editor and owner of the Kansas City Star from jail today, after a sentence of one day's imprisonment for contempt had been pronounced by Judge Joseph Guthrie of the Jackson county circuit court.

The charge that Mr. Nelson through his paper, had defamed the court in the publication of an article stating that the judge upon the advice of a divorce lawyer, had allowed attorneys' fees to take precedence over alimony in a divorce suit that was dismissed without being brought to trial

When Sheriff Win Stanley took Mr Nelson, who is 76 years old, by the arm and started to lead him to jail, Mr Nelson said, quietly:

"I'll not run away," and started to go with him Frank P. Walsh, counsel for Mr Nelson, protested against his client being denied the right of a few minutes' consultation with him

'Fulfill the order Mr Sheriff," said Judge Guthrie, "this court is through with the case"

Mr Walsh pleaded with the sheriff first, then with the judge, that the action contemplated was without precedent and the court finally relented and granted ten minutes in which to present a writ of habeas corpus and presently one of Mr Walsh's assistant, bearing the writ rushed through the crowd which filled the court room Execution of the sentence being stayed, the defendant was taken immediately to the court of appeals where Judge J. M Johnson released Mr Nelson on his personal bail of $100 to appear for a hearing Wednesday, February 5

SINGLE TERMERS WIN IN SENATE

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT FOR SINLE SIX YEAR TERM FOR PRESIDENT APPROVED

THE VOTE WAS CLOSE

Senator Works Resolution Adopted by Margin of Only One Vote More Than Necessary

By Associated Press

Washington, Feb 1—A Constitutional amendment which would restrict the president and vice president of the United States to a single term of six years, and which would bar Woodrow Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt and William H. Taft from again seeking election, was approved by the Senate today, by the narrow margin of one vote necessary to make a two-thirds majority.

After a three days' fight, in which the Progressives joined with many Republicans in opposing the restricted presidential term, the Senate adopted the original Works' resolution, by a vote of 47 to 23

Senator Works cast the deciding vote. The language which it is proposed to insert in the Constitution in place of the first paragraph of Article II is as follows

"The executive power shall be vested in a president of the United States of America, the term of the office of the president shall be six years; and no person who has held the office by election or discharged its powers or duties or acted as president under the Constitution and laws made in pursuance thereof, shall be eligible to hold again the office by election"

The resolution proposing the constitutional amendment now goes to the House for its approval. If ratified there by two-thirds vote, it will be submitted to the legislatures of the States and will become effective when three-fourths of the forty-eight States of the Union have officially approved it.

The adoption of the resolution came at the close of a fight in which repeated attempts were made to change it so that it would not affect past presidents or the president in office when it may be finally ratified by the States. All these efforts failed. Two votes taken again today demonstrated the fact that the Senate did not care to exempt any person from the operation of the single term provision. An amendment by Senator Hitchcock that would have exempted past presidents and made the new provisions take effect on March 4, 1917, was voted down, 42 to 27, and an amendment by Senator Sutherland to exempt the president in office when the Constitutional amendment may finally be ratified was defeated 38 to 29

Senators who supported the single term resolution on final passage were

Democrats — Ashurst, Bankhead, Bryan, Chamberlain, Chilton, Clarke of Arkansas, Fletcher, Hitchcock, Gardner, Johnson of Alabama, Johnson, Kavanaugh, Kern Newlands, Overman, Owen, Paynter, Percy, Simmons, Pergy, Pomerene, Smith of Arizona Smith of Georgia, Smith of Maryland, Swanson, Thomas, Thornton and Williams

Republicans — Bramdegee, Brown Burnham, Burton Catron, Clark of Wyoming, Cummins, Dillingham, Du pont, Gamble, Guggenheim, McCumber, Nelson, Penrose, Perkins, Smoot Sutherland, Wetmore and Works

Against the resolution

Republicans—Borah Bourne, Curtis, Bradley, Bristow, Gallinger Kenyon, Jackson, Jones LaFollette, Lippett, Lodge, McLean, Oliver, Page Richardson, Sanders Stephenson and Townsend

Progressives—Clapp, Dixon and Poindexter

Democrat—Shively

The fate of the resolution was in doubt almost to the last vote cast The debate throughout the day was characterized again by the contention of the Progressives that the proposed Constitutional amendment was a dangerous limitation upon the rights of the people

MOVE BY POWERS IS EXPECTED

TURKISH AND BALKAN DELEGATES AWAIT NEXT MOVE WITH INTENSE INTEREST

TO BRIDGE THE GULF

Russia, Austria and Great Britain, Nations Most Interested in Situation

London, Feb 1—In Turkish and Bulgarian headquarters, the expectation is intense for some move by the powers, either collectively or separately, to avert the threatened resumption of war.

Russia and Austria, the two nations most interested in near Eastern conditions, and Great Britain which has peculiar reasons, as host of the conference, for wishing to see it succeed, are looked to particularly for an effort to bridge the narrow gulf which separates the peace terms of the combatants.

Although the delegates thanked England in glowing terms for her hospitality, some of them do not think she gave as much assistance as she might have They point out that they came a great distance from the Balkan states to London, only because they trusted that British influence in favor of peace would make itself strongly felt

The Balkan envoys today reasserted their desire for another campaign which would make them absolute dictators of peace on their terms and would satisfy their ambition to absorb European Turkey entirely, which would include Constantinople Dr Daneff of the Bulgarians said

"The immediate future rests with rifles and guns, probably the contest will be short and sharp; probably there is in store for the world a bigger surprise than the earlier events of the war have provided

ATWELL WIRED FOR INFORMATION

A CONTEST IS BREWING BETWEEN JUDGE MEEK AND WICKERSHAM

ARCHBOLD INDICTMENT

Attorney General Asks for Full Report on Judge Meek's Recent Action

By Associated Press

Washington Feb 1—A contest between Attorney General Wickersham and United States Judge Meek of Dallas Texas may soon develop over the question of arresting John D Archbold H C Folger Jr, and W. C Teagle of the Standard Oil Company on indictments returned at Dallas, charging violation of the Sherman anti trust law

The situation is approaching a crisis The attorney general has telegraphed United States Attorney Atwell of Dallas for a full report on Judge Meek's recent action in ordering new warrants of arrest because the department of justice had declined to serve the original warrants on the ground that the evidence behind them seemed insufficient

Mr Wickersham wants any additional information collected by the court or by Mr Atwell. He is giving the question close attention and while no official announcement has been made it is believed to be entirely likely that the warrants again may be held up if the department of justice concludes that it has not sufficient evidence to sustain the indictments

ARE INVESTIGATING POKER PLAYING

Special House Committee Will Begin Taking Testimony Tomorrow Morning

By Associated Press

Austin, Texas Feb 1—The House "poker" investigation committee met this morning, elected Mr Eisenlohr secretary and stenographer, and agreed to begin taking testimony Monday

The names of those summoned as witnesses were not made public as process had not yet been served It is understood on the list are the chief of police of Austin, two of his detectives, two newspaper men who wrote stories of raids at a local hotel and perhaps one member of the legislature

During the course of the meeting Chairman Henry of Bowie remarked that a crap" game in which there were ten participants and a poker game where there were four participants had been raided in a local hotel, that it was understood eight of those in the dice game had no connection with the Legislature, but that perhaps after the witnesses summoned had been brought before the committee the names of persons in the Legislature, or interested, might be brought out in the testimony that these witnesses would determine for the committee, very largely what is needed in the way of further testimony

HAS FAITH IN ARCHER COUNTY

SANTA BARBARA MAN WHO DISCOVERED OIL THERE BELIEVES MORE WILL BE FOUND

IN BURKBURNETT DISTRICT

Much Interest is Centered in Operations There—Iowa Park and Petrolia Notes

Dr. R. W. Miller of Santa Barbara, California, owner of the Archer county tract where oil was first discovered nearly a year ago, is in the city with Mrs. Miller and is stopping at the Westland. He has just returned from a visit to his properties south of here. Dr. Miller considers it likely that there will be further development of his Archer county holdings, particularly to the west of the discovery well, and it is to the western part of the tract that he is pinin his faith.

Only one well was drilled to the west of the first well, that being the Andrews No. 2, which encountered a very fair showing of oil. The Russell Brothers well on the Falls county school land was about six miles north and west, and there has been comparatively little development to the westward. Dr Miller expects to see some drilling done in that direction.

He and some others, under the name of the Archer Oil Company, have considerable acreage two and a half miles southwest of the Miller well and they may drill there. Dr. Miller is now drilling a well in Stephens county and is very optimistic of the outcome.

Concerning the recently published report that he intended to sue the Corsicana Petroleum company, on the ground that it had cased the oil off in several of the holes in order to kill the field temporarily, Dr. Miller said he and the Corsicana folks were on the best of terms and that he was not figuring on any million dollar damage suits, as reported.

Burkburnett has been pretty much in the limelight during the past week and the beginning of February finds two wells in the sands and a third with a shallow showing that looks promising. The two on the sands are Corsicana No. 1 Sands, the drilling in of which is delayed by a piece of twelve inch casing jamming, and the Corsicana No. 2 Keowan. This last named well is on the sands and is said to look less promising that the others in that immediate vicinity; some of the scouts who viewed it declare it is not showing for a well at all.

Greenlees Brothers No. 2 encountered an oil sand at 520 feet, but has not yet been tested. There are a number of drilling wells in the Burkburnett field which should be be completed during this month, among them being Schmoker No. 2, 1410 feet; Corsicana Schmoker No. 3, 1250 feet; Jroducers' No. 1 Gebhart, 1050 feet; McBride No. 2 Chenault, 1000 feet; Marcus Oil Company No. 1 Biggars, 1185 feet; Corsicana No. 2 Embry, 1300 feet.

Dyson et al on the Horlein & Walker is down 250 feet; Guffey No. 1 Roller is spudding; Greenlees Brothers No. 3 Reilly is down 50 feet. On the Borcholdt, Interstate No. 1 is making 30 barrels, No. 2, a shallow well, five barrels; No. 3, drilling at 960 feet.

The only completion of interest during the past week at Electra was that of the Guffey No. 17 Miller, which is making close to 300 barrels daily. This tract is owned in fee by the Corsicana Petroleum company, which bought it after the Guffey had closed the lease.

Around Iowa Park leases are very light, but there is as yet little work. Guffey's No. 1 Smith is 1250 feet. L. C. Hivick put a rig to work during the week on the farm of Mrs. Brown. The Ferguson well's production is ranging from five to a dozen barrels daily; with considerably more water than oil. Owen & Wilson have made no new locations as yet on this tract.

New development around Petrolia is largely in the shallow sands and the Corsicana has five rigs going. Several completions in the deeper sand are due very shortly, among them being Developers No. 4, fee, Producers No. 11 Byers and Markowitz Oil company No. 1 Schnell. This last well missed the sand found in Edmonds No. 1 Matlock at 1740 feet. The England well on the fee land is down 760 feet. The Chaves-Turner No. 2 Elliott did not hit the pay that was encountered in No. 1 and is going deeper; this company's No. 1 was good for 15 barrels at 1060 feet.

A society event that was somewhat out of the ordinary took place Wednesday night when L. C. Hivick and Mrs. W. G. Brown, upon whose farm Mr. Hivick has started drilling, paid a bet to Owen and Wilson, the wager being that the finding of oil on the Ferguson before it was found on the Brown should result in an oyster supper at the expense of Mr. Hivick and Mrs. Brown. The latter paid their bet in sumptuous fashion, the following being present: Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hivick, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] A. Dale, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Ho[illegible] Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ferguson, M[illegible] Mrs. J. F. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] W. Treece, [illegible] Williams, A. Woods, J. J. Cobb, [illegible] G. Matthew[illegible] Fenton Dale and Ry[illegible] B. Parker. Children present: Dan[illegible]le Dale, Robert Ferguson, Irene Lo[illegible]e, Audrey Ferguson, Fay Boyd, Ad[illegible]yn Love, Edwi[illegible] Hooks, J. B. Fergus[illegible] Frances Boyd, Mary Elma Ferguson a[illegible] Omer Love.

At Quanah, the well on [illegible]e Wiseman farm is drilling again at [illegible]165 feet, after a fishing job. The H[illegible]lcomb well struck a strong salt water flow, which has not yet been shut off; this well is 311 feet deep.

"He? You mean they. For that error of grammar you will translate five extra pages of Homer," retorted Mr. Wilson.

Reminded that he had never before attended a cabinet meeting, Secretary of State Bryan admitted that he had not, but added, "I have made three attempts at it." Secretary of the Treasury Bryan declared he had not had a financial idea since 1896. Secretary of War Bryan declared he was not Mr. Wilson's Secretary of War but his own Secretary, that he was not in Mr. Wilson's cabinet but was his cabinet. Secretary of the Navy Bryan favored no more battleships, until Lincoln, Neb., became a seaport. Attorney General Bryan, residuary legate of 400 incomplete trust prosecutions, declared his trust policy to be, "to bust those we can't trust, and trust those we can't bust," and explained that when a trust was reorganized, "the small stockholders lose their's quicker." The real trouble began when President Wilson undertook to frame his message, as the Bryan cabinet insisted on relieving him. Many good topics were declared to be reserved for four years, such as Philippine Independence, Government Ownership of Telegraphs, Penny Postage, etc. But the cabinet agreed that for present consideration it might take up the protection of the fur seal; the abolition of the Turkey Trot at inaugural balls, Civil Reform service and the rule of "the people." And as the cabinet meeting broke up, each member left in the President's hand a little memorandum to this effect.

"The thing to bear down on hard is one four year term for the President of the United States."

Miss Democracy came to the dinner in search of a mascot, which afforded the musical members of the Gridiron Club an opportunity to revive the comic opera of that name as a vehicle for a parody on the political situation. Thomas Jefferson's shade returning to earth to ascertain how the "Party Great" which he fathered, had improved, undertook to assist the maid in her search and the result was a flood of mascots.

First came Miss Tariff Reform, with a toy sheep, described by Jefferson as "Schedule K" which though just now a lamb, soon would be made a goat. Sang Miss Tariff:

"I feel quite apprehensive,
"That before I'm reduced,
"Someone with taste expensive,
"Will mark me for a boost."

An entertaining feature of the dinner was a reproduction of "Statuary Hall" which disclosed through the agency of a loud voiced lecturer such plastic treasures as former Senator Bailey, Representative Ollie James, William J. Bryan and others.

GREAT MANY PEOPLE ARE WORRIED
About the high cost of living and wonder about the cause. We have the answer. Its the increased cost of doing business caused by the service demanded by the public. Now we have no quarrel with you. We believe in good services, at prices that will show a living profit. Good service costs money and is the same proposition with the Grocer as with the Doctor, Lawyer, Contractor, Hotel Keeper, or Dressmaker. The better the service the more it costs and the cheaper it is in the long run.
NOW—For those who wish to buy goods without service we have a proposition. We will sell you the goods in the list below at the prices named for cash in our store (Not C. O. D.) and will deliver them in the Store, or will deliver at your home, anywhere in the city limits, for a minimum charge of 10 cents up to 200 pounds, up to 500 pounds 15 cents, up to 750 pounds 20 cents, and a thousand pounds or over at 25 cents per thousand. This will have nothing to do with your regular business and the drayage must be paid whether you buy other goods or not. Our regular service (the best we know how to give) will be just the same and free as usual. This is not a lot of junk picked up for the occasion but the regular goods with which we furnish our best trade.

VOLUME VI. WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1913—PART TWO NUMBER 227

NOTES OF THE WEEK.

There will be a meeting of the Mothers' Club at the Austin school building on next Thursday afternoon and it is urgently requested that all members attend the meeting as business of special importance is to come up for action.

This week's meeting of the Five Hundred Club will be with Mrs T T. Reese and will be held on Tuesday afternoon instead of on Thursday.

The dance given last Tuesday evening by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Order of Railway Conductors was an unusually pleasant affair and was the course of much enjoyment to a large number of couples, who dance until a late hour.

Lent begins Wednesday and will be marked by a cessation of activities to some extent. The past week has been a busy one on account of the numerous ante-Lenten affairs

Several affairs are being planned for St. Valentine's day and the memory of the saint will doubtless be quite generally honored in this city

The Friday Bridge Club will not meet during the Lenten season and Friday's session was the last until after Easter.

At the Westland Friday evening, Dr. Brown entertained with an informal supper, those present being Dr. Brown and Miss Cleo Allison, John W. Thomas and Miss Lillian Avis.

The daily society column in The Times has already proven a very popular feature. Items received during the week will also appear Sunday, as many of the readers like the column as a feature of the Sunday morning issue Telephone 167 and ask for the society editor; items should be sent in before noon of the day on which they are to be published, but will be accepted at any hour

Mrs. A. Ayres of Bowie returned home yesterday after a pleasant visit here

Miss Cora Lewis of Paris, who has been visiting in Quanah, will stop here to be the guest of Mrs. A. B. Huff for two weeks.

GERAGHTY-MEY NUPTIALS CELEBRATED THURSDAY.

A very impressive wedding was solemnized Thursday at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Montgomery, 606 Travis, when Mrs Montgomery's daughter, Miss Vernona Mey, was given in marriage to Mr. W P Geraghty Rev. Chester Wood officiated. The bride, who is a very attractive and popular young lady and possessed of a charming personality, was attired in a rich and becoming traveling gown of dark blue with cerise trimming, hat to match. The groom is one of Wichita Falls' most substantial business men Upon their return from Fort Worth and San Antonio, where they expect to meet the groom's mother, who is en route to California, Mr. and Mrs. Geraghty will keep house in their Floral Heights home. They received many beautiful presents, the groom's gift to the bride being a diamond necklace A host of friends wish them happiness and prosperity.

BALL BY MOOSE LODGE IS VERY PLEASANT AFFAIR.

About 150 couples Friday night attended the opening ball by the recently organized Moose lodge at the new rooms in the Bacon-Henderson building on Ohio avenue The large dancing floor in the city, 50x150 feet, was open for the occasion and the young people enjoyed it until a late hour, to the music of the Moose orchestra The grand march was led by A. C McKeen, district dictator and his daughter Miss Marie Mc Keen. Refreshing punch was served during the evening and the affair was a successful one in every way It is announced that other dances will follow this one the next to be given next Friday night with a ball on the night of St Valentine's

DANCE BY ELKS' LODGE IS COMPLIMENT TO VISITORS

ART LITERATURE CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. C. W. BEAN.

The Art Literature Club held its regular session with Mrs C W Bean Tuesday, Jan 28. The art study for the afternoon was Norway, its climate, scenery and customs as pictured by Stoddard, and was most ably presented to the club by Mrs Gebhart. Other interesting characteristics of the Norsemen as individuals, were given by the members Another most interesting paper from the Bayview course was read by Mrs Harris on the "Giant Agriculture of Argentine" The club was visited by Mrs Berney in behalf of the United Clubs of the city, who gave a most enthusiastic talk on the need and value of a stereopticon for the use of the high school, as well as the various clubs of the town The proposition put forth by her was unanimously endorsed by the club after a careful consideration of the matter The members present were Mesdames Bean, Gebhart, Harris, Kerr Harry Robertson, Blankenship, Rountree Cravens, E L. Smith, White and Carithers and Misses Kerr Childers and Seelinger The guests were Mesdames Berney, Lee and Stone Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs J W Stone The former meeting Tuesday, Jan 21 was a very enjoyable affair held at Mrs Filgo's home on Tenth street Famous American sculptors being the subject, a most interesting discussion with helpful papers were given. One on the life and productions of M M Young by Mrs Blankenship was most ably presented and especially enjoyable. The sketch on Lerado Taft by Mrs Bean was very entertaining and instructive The Bayview study conducted by Mrs Harris was further impressed by a paper, "The Conquest of Peru" by Mrs. Filgo. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Elmer Filgo served a delicious salad course at the conclusion of the program.

APPEAL TO MEMBERS OF AUSTIN MOTHERS CLUB.

To the Members of Stephen F. Austin School Mother's Club: This is the time of the year when there should be a steady under current of interest and a willingness in every member to do active work. There has been ample time since the new officers were elected for all to become acquainted with their work and to know each other and be able to work together in harmony and it is time now that our efforts begin to show some fruit. The president is doing her duty. She never fails to impart some of her vim and energy to those who attend If you will allow me to criticize, I think she is if anything a little too lenient with her committees She should demand more of them—give every member something to do and insist upon one and all putting their shoulder to the wheel Every member should be a subscriber for the Texas Motherhood magazine For "there is no inspiration without information" If we would read and see how much other clubs are accomplishing and how much we could do I am sure we would all get busy and try to do something worthy of note We all need new life and inspiration, we cannot live within ourselves and grow, hence we should gain all the information within our reach. When we read that the Brooklyn, N. Y. club women pay an extra teacher to look after the children who linger on the way home and who behave rudely on the street and we read of another club who pay a matron to stay on the school grounds all during school hours to see that there is no misbehavior, then our eyes are opened and we look into our own needs, and get busy. So much for information as a means of inspiration. Now on next Thursday afternoon the Stephen F Austin School Mothers' Club will hold their regular meeting There will be roll call with answer pertaining to the welfare of the school child. A discussion of the school child and his needs by entire club A vocal selection and an entertainment by the children from one of the rooms.

MRS. PEERY.

MRS. WEBB AND MRS. SMITH HOSTESSES FRIDAY

State Supervisor for the organization appointed Mary Tatum secretary for the organization. The meeting closed at 5 p. m. and the members all were called to the foot of the stairs where their pictures were then taken as souvenirs of their first district meeting. About forty of the members met at 8:30 p. m., and a jolly party took the cars for a trip to the glass factory. Most of the delegates left Saturday for their homes with praise for Lone Star Camp No. 4108. The camp has a large membership and is steadily increasing. They take pride in doing their work well and want to be up to date in everything pertaining to lodge work.

COMPULSORY EDUCATIONAL MEASURE MAY FAIL.

Austin, Tex. Jan. 31.—The chances for the passage of a compulsory education law at the present session are not as good as a few days ago. Indeed, it is not likely one will be passed if the action of the senate committee on education can be taken as an indication. That committee has made an unfavorable report on the senate bill on that subject on the grounds that the measure is too sweeping and that it would be impossible to enforce it. The house committee on education has not as yet acted on the house bill on the same subject. The senate committee, however, has made a favorable report on the bill endorsed by State Superintendent Bralley, which renders more effective the rural high school law.

Senate judiciary committee No. 1 had again deliberated on the bill which seeks to give married women separate control of their property, and after spending some time discussing the merits of the various measures introduced on this subject, failed to take definite action. There is a strong delegation of ladies here interested in the enactment of this bill which is also backed by the State Federation of Woman's clubs. There is considerable opposition in the senate to the enactment of such a law.

BUGSCUFFLE BUDGET

Editor Daily Times:

I notice that you complain in your paper that the correspondent from Bugscuffle has not been heard from lately, saying that he certainly must be sick—or words to that effect. You also hint it would be a good trick for some young person to take up that work which your correspondent seems to have thrown down.

Well, you are both right and wrong. This writer has been sick. Dr. Pollet thought for a while that it was a case of smallpox, and Col. Jim Jawsmith called a meeting of the citizens to express themselves about the matter, for Squire Yokes did not feel free to send the patient to the pest house without the endorsement of the community. However, when the people met, and while the Colonel was in one of his towering orations upon the subject of considering the public health, the doctor having decided that I only had a case of colic, and the pains altogether ceased, I walked into the meeting. I never thought that my unexpected presence under any condition could cause so much interest and create so much excitement. I had no sooner entered the room—the lower floor of the school building—than with a whoop and a yell, the whole crowd burst out at the door and through the windows, so that by the time I had reached a seat, the building was empty, except Old Bro Bugle, Old Man Seets and the speaker. Take it from me, that crowd was scared.

Still, while my sickness was of comparatively short duration, I felt the effects of it fo rsevernl days. Old Mrs. Wunk who had an attack of the same trouble after eating at the wedding dinner when Miss Tut got married, said she felt "powerful weak like in her inerds for several days."

And that reminds me that your readers have not had an account of the marriage of Miss Tut to Prof. Von Bungs. Well, they are married all right and, as Dutch Bunker says, "well of it." When the bride heard of what Dutch had said, she declared that she never expected to be "well of it" and dropped into poetry as follows:

"Doubt thou the stars are fire;
Doubt that the sun doth move;
Doubt truth to be a liar,
But never doubt I love"

As long as Von Bungs has lungs, Yum, yum. O, Miss Tut is the happiest woman I have seen in many a day. I do trust "the illusion of the wedding day" as Col. Jim expressed it may last until the poor girl has not a hair on her head nor a tooth in her mouth. I made this remark the night of the wedding, and quiet Old Bro. Bugle remarked that "in these days of false teeth and imported hair, it would be hard to tell when a woman was short on either." Old Mrs. Womble, who is from the East, and who never has been satisfied with the way we Texas people do things, said that she thought Old Bro. Bugle was much to blame for making such a remark as that, and added, that where she came from, the preachers just preached the gospel and let people attend to their own business. The old lady, I am afraid, is not going to be popular here. For Old Bro Bugle just says what he pleases in this church, and nobody ever criticised him before so far as I know. I think like Col. Jim, that it will be "the beginning of the end when our preachers and editors are not allowed to express their honest opinions as to what is for the best in the community at large." I think a preacher ought to fight everything that he thinks does harm to the people among whom he lives, and that the editor ought to do the same. If these public mouth pieces are not the mouth pieces for the better classes, who will be? This is my opinion, and the same is Col. Jim's.

But about Miss Tilby's wedding. The engagement between these worthy people had been known for some time, and two or three ladies in the community had honored the bride to be with different kinds of showers as they call it, on which occasions the friends brought in a sufficient quantity of one thing and another to start the couple off to house keeping in pretty good style. Squire Yokes said the other day that times certainly had changed since he married for on that delightful occasion, his mother gave him a feather bed, and his partner—they were farming on the halves down in Montague county—gave him a gourd and a big pumpkin and that was all the wedding

R-C-H "The Car Complete" $950
DELIVERED

Get the Wife's Judgment on the R-C-H

Take her with you to look at it; let her ride in it; see what she thinks of its beauty, its comfort, the ease with which it is driven. Her judgment on those points is mighty good.

The R-C-H is not alone a man's car—it's a car for the whole family. It doesn't take a big husky man to start it or to drive it. If the women folks want to take a trip to town or off to visit friends, they can handle the car just as well as you could. There's nothing complicated about it—the whole construction is based on the idea of eliminating all the trouble-breeding arrangements of parts that spoil one's pleasure with so many cars.

Yet the R-C-H is exceptionally strong, exceptionally powerful. The long-stroke motor takes you easily and smoothly through any kind of going. It will scoot along through the mud of a spring freshet, or on the deep sand of a dry road; it will climb the hills that would stump the ordinary "square" motor of the same relative size, and it is very economical of fuel. Call or phone for demonstration.

Hupp-Yeats Electric

We are also agents for the celebrated Hupp Yeats Electric Coupe and Runabout. These cars are as good as they are beautiful. The motor is a "Westinghouse." The batteries the highly efficient Exide Hycap.

pretty girls he got. Well times have changed and for the better in most cases too. I remember that when Mrs. B. and I were made one it was a short picking over our way. Squire Yukes is nothing if not hospitable. He has the largest house in the town and all the kick-ups as Col. Jim calls them are held there. As he has most of them. He will have card playing and dancing in the house but all kinds of innocent amusement the young folks want to. All of his fellows then his parlor to dance as Col. Jim calls it. The Squire says that if he should allow a gambling school (this term for card parties) or a lot of hugging so to must this description of the modern dance) in his house anything, he should come of it he would always feel like he had been a party to the ruin of that boy or girl as the case might be. Bro. Bugle says the Squire is right. So does Col. Jim. And when those two and Dr. Pellet line up with old Squire Yukes on a proposition Bugscuffle thinks it that the matter has had the last word. Miss Tan Fizzletop who is visiting the woods a new family here from the East—Miss Tan says Bro. Bugle and all of his sort are old fogies that where she lives the society people just do as they please. They just dance and gamble and drink and even the girls smoke cigarettes and use cuss words—that is all the leading people do. Of course there is a scandal now and then she says but the railroad is reached and a little visit to friends in another part of the country covers it all up. Miss Tan is pretty pert. As Dutch Bunker says she is sot. But Col. Jim says she is fine material for one side of a divorce case. But is to the Squire and his hospitality. He offered Miss Tan and the Professor his parlor to marry in and gave them a big supper to boot. Of course Old Bro. Bugle performed the ceremony. It was the intention to have the ceremony performed at midnight but when the time came the center was so tragicously. It was finally concluded to pull off the whole thing marriage reception and all the rest of it at 8 o'clock. The parlor was handsomely decorated. The color scheme was yellow and green. Marigolds and sun flowers were everywhere. The artificial beauties were arranged by a young lady friend. Wichita Falls who is soon herself to be married. Pendent from the center of the room was a huge bell made of yellow paper and having a green clapper. Two green paper doves tied together by a piece of yellow ribbons were suspended from the lower part of the bell clapper and this piece of decoration was much admired by everybody. The bride and groom during the wedding ceremony stood directly beneath these doves. During this solemn performance Miss Winnie Wunk discovered that the little dove had lost his tail and whispered to Mandy Yukes that she should slip around and pin it back on but it was finally agreed to let it go. Dutch Bunker said at the supper table that the real made dove on this occasion the Professor would have his tail feathers torn out soon enough according to his judgment. The Professor overheard the last and gave Dutch such a look that that young wag tipped in silence and remained so the rest of the evening.

The bride was dressed in yellow merino over green lawn and carried a huge bouquet of paper sun flowers. The groom was dressed in a neat suit of yellow corduroys with a green neck tie and tan shoes. The groom had three attendants all dressed like himself. These were Jabe Lawsmith, Josh Biggs Jr. and Sy Pellet. The bride had three maids—Mandy Yukes, Sis Ponder and Winnie Wunk. These were green merino over yellow lawn skirts. Each bore a beautiful bouquet of marigolds. Little Liney Scots acted as flower girl and strewed the path of the happy couple with leaves. The whole affair was a dress parade but space forbids a description of all the gowns and other paraphanalia which went to complete the beauty of the general effect. One or two pen pictures will give the reader some idea of how the ladies were generally gowned. Mrs. Yukes was dressed in a dark silk polinaise over a white skirt with a bunch of sun flowers (Liney's) scorely onto the top of her head. A large locket containing a picture of the Squire as a Confederate corporal was fastened by a black ribbon about her neck. Col. Jim Lyestock remarked that could the ghost of the English Dowager Lord the lovely house of our honored host to wish he would return and wait cross. The supper colors being observed in the dining room. A yellow and green thread the center of the table around which were arranged an abundant supply of yellow roses and bananas. Persimmon beer as much was served in a large tin pail on the front porch by Misses Beulah Blevins, Sadie Wunk and Teresa Piddleto.

During all the festivities the Big Scuffle band discoursed the most inspiring music. All the members—except swing bloods—were in their places and a the notes of Bills in the Low Grounds and Sugar in the Gourd fell upon the enraptured ear of the crowd a shout went up from time to time the strongest possible testimony to the excellence of the minstrels. The wedding presents were many and beautiful. Only a few can be mentioned. A large lamp worked on chains and adorned with numerous glass pendants was the gift of Old Man and Mrs. Seets. A set of knives and forks was presented by Col. and Mrs. Jawsmith. Several presents were sent in from the Falls consisting of vases, lamp globes, hair brushes and other beautiful and necessary articles. The oil men through Mr. W. W. Silk sent a five gallon can of fine lamp oil. The dry goods merchants through Mr. R. D. Kennedy, sent several pair of socks and sto kings and a box of handkerchiefs. Mr. Bradley for the furniture men sent a set of dining room chairs.

Taken all in all the affair was the most tony and up to date stunt ever pulled off in this little city. Judge Jawsmith in an after dinner speech declared that this function not only reflects credit upon the honored host and hostess, but as an illuminating specimen of a present civilization sheds refulgent glory upon every citizen of this chivalrous and cultured community—yea upon the entire county yea upon the state the nation of which this town of Bugscuffle is fast becoming the glowing center of the loftiest ideals known to the progress and achievements of modern times.

REALTY COMPANY PAYS DIVIDEND

FLORAL HEIGHTS COMPANY CUTS A MELON FOR ITS STOCKHOLDERS

A REMARKABLE RECORD

Stockholders Have Already Received Five Dollars For Every One Actually Paid In

Directors of the Floral Heights Realty Company Friday afternoon declared a twenty-five per cent dividend on the stock of that company, bringing the total dividends to date paid by that corporation during the four years of its existence up to 167 1-2 per cent.

Enough funds were left in the treasury of the company to pay another twenty-five per cent dividend and it is probable this will be done within the next few weeks.

The company which is capitalized at $125,000 has already paid out $208,750 in dividends and has real estate, notes, cash and other holdings conservatively valued at $180,000.

When the fact is taken into consideration that the subscribers to Floral Heights stock paid in only one-third the face value of their stock it will be seen that they have already received more than five dollars for every one actually invested.

The directors Friday also ordered a ten per cent increase in the price of all lots remaining unsold on March 1st.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders W. M. Priddy and T. J. Waggoner were elected directors succeeding J. B. Marlow and N. C. McIntyre. The old officers of the company were reelected.

Mr. Black was a native of Tennessee and brought his family here from Bowie, Texas, about eight years ago opening a shoe shop.

AN INTERSTATE FAIR PLANNED

FAIR COMMITTEE OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEGOTIATING WITH AMUSEMENT MAN

PLANS ARE PRETENTIOUS

Favorable Progress Reported With Negotiations and Definite Announcement Expected Soon

It is beginning to look very much like Wichita Falls will soon have an Interstate Fair to be an annual event, clinched. The fair committee of the Chamber of Commerce is negotiating with a well known amusement man who is now in the city, and while arrangements have not yet been perfected, it is very likely that definite terms will be reached this week.

As planned, the fair will be on a considerably broader basis than a mere county proposition, and it is planned to make it interstate in nature, inviting cooperation on the part of Oklahoma as well as Northwest Texas counties. It is proposed to have the fair grounds at the lake and to start it on a basis that will put it in the front rank of fairs from the very start.

The plans for the fair are somewhat pretentious and cannot be made public until the deal is closed. It is planned to establish a fair that will be in keeping with the town's reputation for doing things thoroughly and the contemplated initial investment is sufficient to make a flying start.

It is likely that the negotiations will be concluded within the next few days.

NEED OF ADDITIONAL TRACKS EMPHASIZED

Congestion at Union Station May Result in Re-arrangement of Tracks

The need of additional tracks at the Union Station is being emphasized almost daily and it is probable that some action will be taken shortly to relieve the congestion which has been frequent there.

Between 11.30 a. m. and 2.40 p. m., every railroad entering this city has trains arriving at the station, there being four over the Denver, two over the Wichita Valley, one over the Northwestern, one over the Southern and one over the Katy. When all these trains are on time, the situation can be handled fairly well, but when one or more of them is late congestion and inconvenience are certain.

Yesterday, for instance, the Katy train from Denison was about an hour and ten minutes late. It came in on the first track, which was occupied by the westbound Valley and was forced to discharge its passengers down by the ice plant. It then had to go back and come up on the third track and wait until the through northbound Denver had pulled out before it could load for the outbound trip.

There is some sentiment here in favor of a complete rearrangement of the passenger tracks so that instead of them running parallel to the station, they will be at right angles to it, as in the Union Station at Fort Worth. Considerable labor and expense would be entailed by such a change, but it is believed that it will eventually prove necessary in view of the constantly increasing traffic through Wichita Falls.

Suppose you suggest to your husband that you trade with us next month. We will appreciate it. Trevathan Bros.

City Poll Tax Figures.

Last Year 1577
This Year 1237
Decrease—340

Probable bond issues in the county and the adoption of a new charter and bond elections in the city faded to bring the number of poll tax payments up to last year's figures for either place.

In the county 2397 poll tax receipts had been issued up to midnight Friday night which with 46 exemption certificates brought the total up to 2443. Last year 2459 poll tax receipts and 113 exemptions were issued making a total of 2572, showing a net loss this year over last of 129.

Every voting precinct in the county, with the exceptions of Burkburnett and Electra, paid fewer polls than last year. In the two precincts named an impending local option election in one and the probability of a similar election in the other served as incentives for a larger number to qualify to vote.

In the city of Wichita Falls the lassitude of the voters was greater and the poll tax payments reached only 1237 which was 340 less than last year when the total was 1577.

The number of polls paid and exemptions issued together with the totals for the thirteen precincts of the county follow:

	Polls	Exp	Total

2 Court House	371	1	372

STAMFORD BOYS WILL BE GIVEN A TRIAL HERE

C. A. Shell and C. E. Rosamond Signed by Drillers—Fred Morris Also Signs

Three of the contracts mailed out to baseball players by the baseball association, for the 1913 season have been accepted and returned. They are those of Captain Fred Morris, C. A. Shell of Stamford and C. E. Rosamond of Stamford.

There is general rejoicing among the fans that Fred Morris will head the team for another season. Duke had his salary raised to $125 per month for this season and agreed to head the club for another season though he had a much better offer financially, from a Nebraska team. He is expected to reach here shortly to begin getting the bunch together.

Shell and Rosamond, the Stamford try-outs, are both infield men and will be given a chance to make good.

The directors of the baseball association held a meeting and elected Secretary Thomas to the treasurership which is something of a step at present as there are no funds on hand. However there will be before long.

NEW BUILDINGS TOTAL $92,505

PERMIT ISSUED LATE FRIDAY AFTERNOON INCREASES PREVIOUS FIGURES $6 000

FOUR MONTHS RECORD

Value of New Buildings Since October Totals $386 000—Much Building Outside City Limits

A permit issued late Friday evening to Wiley Wyatt for a one story brick building on Indiana avenue between Eighth and Ninth streets swelled the total building permits issued in January to $92 5 and brings the total since the building permit ordinance became effective in October 1912 to $386 000

At the rate at which permits for new buildings are being issued a total in excess of a million dollars is indicated for 1913 within the city limits not including over $3 000 in factories and new buildings just outside the city limits already in sight

New Opportunities For Trade Are Opened by Parcels Post

Having discovered that the parcel post is both quicker and cheaper than the ordinary express service with the farmer and business man is coming to recognize it as a super system of transportation of light packages and are using it to great advantage The farmer uses it for delivery of his produce without coming to town and the merchant does it for selling the goods he sells without the necessity of the farmer or resident of small nearby town coming into the store if it does not suit their convenience The telephone and the regular mail form almost a complete to the parcel congress authorizing the establishment of a parcel post system provides that on and after January 1 1913 fourth class mail matter shall embrace all other matter in indicia farm and factory products not now embraced by law in either the first second or third class not exceeding 11 pounds in weight nor greater in size than 72 inches in length and girth combined, nor in form or kind likely to injure the person of any postal employe or damage the mail equipment or other mail matter, and not of a character perishable within a period reasonably required for transportation and delivery

Using the parcel post the farmer will be able to take garden truck eggs chickens and other produce to the mail box and have it delivered from house to house in town And the cost of this within the limits of his local zone will be only 5 cents for the first pound and 1 cent a pound for each additional pound

Where formerly he sold to the huckster—providing he didn't care to drive to town—the huckster sold to the commission man the commission man to the grocer and he grocer to the consumer—each making his profit now the farmer may sell direct to the consumer

Still considering the farmer there is no reason why anyone should not run a mail order business right on his own farm There is a farmer in Wisconsin who has spent thousands of dollars to work out a business organization to market his sausages The people in the large cities would be glad to pay a good price for real country made sausage if they could get it

By using the parcel post one could ship farm made sausage all over the United States to be delivered at the door of the consumer Butter apple butter cantaloupes, strawberries, or anything of this nature could be sold in the same way The farmer will be able to set up in business as a manufacturer a business man an advertising man and plutocrat It will pay him to pick out some specialty and push it

The farmer who lives within fifty miles of a big city has a special advantage At the present time unless he is able to drive to town he must sell to the commission man Shipping by parcel post he should be able to work up a retail trade in the highest priced market in America the large cities

The people in the small towns will be benefited by this law The consumer will get fresh farm produce at a small price The merchants will have at least a country wide market for his goods where formerly he sold mainly in the town Farmers generally do their buying on Saturday and often do without things rather than make a special trip to town during the week Now they may buy every weekday and have the goods delivered at the farm

The parcel post law instructs the postmaster general to take steps towards working out a C O D system, a collect system, and an insurance system

This act also should be a fine thing for the mail order men and manufacturers They will be able to ship goods direct to the consumer and collect for them Chicago has been given the largest appropriation by the government because this city is known to be the center of the mail order business

Farmers today are fairly well to do not so well off as many city people think, or so poor as formerly They can and do buy things they never would have thought of buying ten years ago Still there are many necessities and luxuries that the farmers don't buy simply because of the inconveniences of transportation

Suppose you suggest to your husband that you trade with us next month We will appreciate it Trevathan Bros

Safety razors for example, are little known on the farm New style neckties please the farmer boys, but are seldom bought because seldom seen Alarm clocks rubber heels for shoes, breakfast foods, fountain pens prepared soups, shoe polishes, massage creams and a multitude of similar articles that seldom are sold to farmers should now be marketed in large quantities The farmer today should enjoy the same luxuries as the city business man—and at the same cost

FORESTER LEAVES FOR NORTH CAROLINA

Late Secretary of Chamber of Commerce Carries With Him Best Wishes of Wichitans

J C Forester until yesterday secretary of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce will leave early this morning with Mrs Forester for Greensboro North Carolina where he will shortly begin work as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of that city

Mr Forester has been secretary of the local organization since April of last year and his administration has been characterized by conservative, systematic efforts for the upbuilding of the community with good results in spite of the fact that his term of office began when the organization had been through a series of unfortunate happenings Mr and Mrs Forester carry with them the best wishes of their many friends in this city

No successor to Mr Forester has been chosen as yet and the office is now in charge of John W Thomas assistant secretary It is probable that the vacancy will be filled before many days
